

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: Second World War

8-25-1937

1937-08-25, Evabel to Jack

Evabel Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation

Bell, Evabel, "1937-08-25, Evabel to Jack" (1937). Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection. 37.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/37

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1937-08-25, Evabel to Jack

Keywords

U.S.A.; correspondence; Oberlin, Ohio; Detroit, Mich.; postal service; postal stamp; training; women at home; romance; savings bond; money; funds; California; marriage; recreation and entertainment; leisure;

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1937-08-25_001

BUY U. S. SAVINGS
BONDS
ASK YOUR POST

Mr. Jack Bell
31 Groveland St.,
Oberlin,
Ohio

12739 Linwood ave
Detroit,
Mich.

Dear Jack,

I'm very sorry if you were expecting a letter and didn't get it. But as a general rule I don't answer letters I don't get.

I really didn't mean to write that letter to hurt you. But often the truth hurts. doesn't it?

you said that we shouldn't argue by letter but never-the-less I have no other way to tell you. and I seem to put my thoughts on paper. and personally I don't think it would ever work out.

I'm very sorry, Jack, to think this way. But come how I just can't seem to think that it will work out.

your letters seem to be getting shorter & shorter every time. you don't have so much to tell me any more. maybe you don't seem to realize it. But I do. you seem to be getting farther away all the time. I have asked you questions in my letter time and again and you never answer them. All you seem to think I want you to say in a letter is that you love me.

I have finished my course. and now I'm waiting for a job. and I still haven't heard from Jim and I still owe Zella that money I owe her $11 already. She is swell to me. She says I should forget it. But I can't do that. After all, $11 dollars is 11 dollars. and just as soon as I start working I'm going to pay her back and double. she is plenty good to me.

I got my diploma. and my card. I can go to any city in the U.S.A. that has a Monroe company and get a job. you can't never tell I might ever decide to go to California. Gosh I sure would love to go there. I'm going to really travel before I decide to settle down which, as far as I can see it in the very dim future.

Well, Jack, I must be closing now
as I have to get dressed.

As Ever,

Evelyn.

P. S. Darling, I still love you, even if you are getting tired of me.

[[Nick Dante 5/12/16]]

[[Bell Correspondence #1]]

[[Page 1- Envelope - Front]]

[[image- purple three cents U.S. postage stamp]]

[[image- black rectangular stamp: BUY U.S. SAVINGS
BONDS. ASK YOUR POSTMAN]]

[[image- black circle stamp: DETROIT, MICH. 1937
AUG 25 7-PM]]

Mr. Jack Bell

51 Groveland St.

Oberlin,

Ohio

[[Page 2- Envelope - Back]]

12729 Linwood Ave
Detroit,
Mich.

[[Page 3- Letter]]

[[image- top left corner: stationary of Scottish terrier w/ bandana, and letter in mouth]]

Dear Jack,

I'm very sorry if you were expecting a letter and didn't get it. But as a general rule I don't answer letters I don't get.

I really didn't mean to write that letter to hurt you. But often the truth hurts. doesn't it?

You said that we shouldn't argue by letters but neverthe – less I have no other way to tell you. And I seem too put my my thoughts on paper. And personally I don't think it would ever work out.

Your letters seem to be getting shorter + shorter every time. You don't have so much to tell me any more. Maybe you don't seem to realize it. But I do. You seem to be getting farther away all the time. I have asked you questions in my letters time and again and you never answer them. All you seem to think I want to say in a letter is that you love me.

[[Page 4- Letter]]

-2-

I have finished my course. And now I'm waiting for a job. And I still haven't heard from Jim and I still owe Zella that money I owe her $11 already. She is swell to me. She says I should forget it. But I can't do that. After all $11 dollars is 11 dollars. And just as soon as I start working I'm going to pay her back and double. She is plenty good to me.

I got my diploma. And my card. I can go to any city in the U.S.A. that has a Monroe company and get a job. You can't never tell I might even decide to go to California. Gosh I sure would love to go there. I'm going to really travel before I decide to settle down which, as far as I can see is in the very dim future.

[[Page 5- Letter]]

Well, Jack, I must be closing now
as I have to get dressed.

As Ever,

Evabel.

P.S. Darling, I still love you, even if you are getting tired of me.